

What is the Life Transformation Program?

The Life Transformation Program is a substance abuse rehabilitation program provided by the City Rescue Mission at no charge to those in need.

Voluntary

Women choose to be a part of the Life Transformation Program. Though they are required to fulfill certain obligations and undertake assigned program responsibilities, they can leave the program at any time.

Residential

Program participants are required to live in the provided quarters for the full time of their stay in the program.

One Year

Program participants must be willing to commit to a year long stay with an initial 30 day evaluation.

Bible-based

Biblical counseling and Bible classes are part of the daily training process of the CRM Life Transformation Program.
